AN ACT

To provide for a study of the feasibility of establishing the President Adams Parkway.

President Adams
Parkway.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there is hereby authorized to be appropriated a sum not exceeding $25,000 to be used by the Department of the Interior through the National Park Service and by the Department of Commerce through the Bureau of Public Roads to make a joint survey of a route for a national memorial parkway to be known as the President Adams Parkway in memory of John Adams and John Quincy Adams, second and sixth Presidents of the United States. The survey shall extend from Faneuil Hall, Boston, Massachusetts, to Plymouth, Massachusetts, via Quincy, Massachusetts (in the vicinity of the homes and burial places of John Adams and John Quincy Adams). An estimate of cost of construction of the national parkway or any portions thereof found to be practicable by said survey, together with such other data as will be valuable, shall be obtained with the objective of determining the desirability of authorizing the construction of the parkway or any portion thereof. A report of the survey, upon its completion, shall be transmitted to the Congress by the Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Commerce, together with their recommendations thereon.

Report to Congress.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Commerce are hereby directed to complete such joint survey within one year after the enactment of this Act.

Approved September 21, 1959.
