AN ACT

For the relief of the widow of Colonel Claud C. Smith.

September 8, 1959
[S. 1667]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the widow of Colonel Claud C. Smith, 7015041, the sum of $6,675. Such sum shall be in full satisfaction of all claims for compensation for a dwelling house which was erected by the said Colonel Claud C. Smith in 1934 and 1935 on the Fort Jackson Military Reservation, South Carolina, and which has been used by the Army since the said Colonel Claud C. Smith was forced to vacate the same on March 9, 1942, no compensation having been received for such house by the said Colonel Claud C. Smith or his heirs: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved September 8, 1959.

Widow of Col.
Claud C. Smith.
