AN ACT

For the relief of Mrs. Anna Loftis.

September 22, 1959
[H. R. 3781]

Anna Loftis.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Mrs. Anna Loftis, widow of Ben A. Loftis, Gallatin, Tennessee, the sum of $10,000. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims of the said Mrs. Anna Loftis and of the estate of the said Ben A. Loftis against the United States for compensation for the death of the said Ben A. Loftis, who was drowned in the Cumberland River near Woods Ferry Landing, Gallatin, Tennessee, on August 7, 1954, as the result of an accident involving a United States Corps of Engineers river inspection boat, the Clermont. Such claims are not cognizable under the tort claims procedure as provided in title 28, United States Code: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
