LABOR, APPRECIATION OF CONGRESS

Whereas American labor has raised its standards of productivity to heights unequaled in world history; and
 Whereas the efforts of American labor have brought to this country a standard of living that has no parallel; and
 Whereas American labor has served the Nation in peace and war; and Whereas American labor has been a bulwark of freedom; and
 Whereas the first Monday in September is traditionally set aside to commemorate the services of working men and women to our Nation; Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring),
 That the Congress does hereby express its deep realization and appreciation of the basic role that labor plays in our economy and of the contributions that American working men and women have made to America's well-being.
