AN ACT

For the relief of Mrs. Viola H. Rooks.

April 8, 1960
[H. R. 7636]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That sections 15 through 20, inclusive, of the Federal Employees' Compensation Act are hereby waived with respect to the claim of Mrs. Viola H. Rooks, of College Park, Georgia, against the United States for benefits for herself and her children by reason of the Act of July 15, 1939 (5 U.S.C., secs. 797, 797a), arising out of the death of her husband, First Lieutenant Andrew J. Rooks (serial number AO834296, Veterans' Administration claim numbered XC-6-349-418) United States Air Force on November 3, 1949. Such claim shall be acted upon under the remaining provisions of the Federal Employees' Compensation Act without regard to section 416(b) of title 38 of the United States Code, if she files claim for such benefits with the Secretary of Labor within the six-month period which begins on the date of enactment of this Act and makes the election required by section 7(a) of the Federal Employees' Compensation Act. No benefits shall accrue by reason of the enactment of this Act for any period prior to the date of its enactment, except in the case of such medical or hospitalization expenditures which may be deemed reimbursable.

Viola H. Rooks.
