AN ACT

For the relief of Harry L. Arkin.

May 24, 1960
[S. 2523]

Harry L. Arkin.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Harry L. Arkin of Denver, Colorado, the sum of $270.90. The payment of such sum shall be in full satisfaction of all claims of the said Harry L. Arkin against the United States for (1) reimbursement for expenses, including insurance costs, incurred by him in having his automobile transported from Germany to the United States upon termination of his duty overseas with the Air Force, the said Harry L. Arkin having been denied shipment of his automobile at Government expense because of a change in Air Force policy which occurred after approval had been given by the transportation officer of the Seventeenth Air Force for the shipment of his automobile by such means, and (2) per diem allowance for the period (March 1 to March 6, 1959) he was permitted to remain in Germany, beyond his scheduled departure date, to await an official decision with regard to the shipment of his automobile: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the
