AN ACT

For the relief of Ralph W. Anderson.

September 2, 1960
[H. R. 8989]

Ralph W. Anderson.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Ralph W. Anderson, lieutenant colonel, United States Army, is hereby relieved of all liability for repayment to the United States of the sum of $1,550.25, representing overpayments of longevity pay paid to him as the result of his claiming membership in the Enlisted Reserve Corps of the Army for the period July 16, 1938, to August 1, 1940, which period was disallowed by the Army after the said Ralph W. Anderson had been paid on the basis of such period for over fifteen years, the said Ralph W. Anderson having believed such period was a matter of record in the official files of the United States Army.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said Ralph W. Anderson, the sum of any amount received or withheld from him on account of the overpayment referred to in the first section of this Act.

Approved September 2, 1960.
