

the observance of that week in their schools and communities.

Let us reaffirm our deep interest in the training ground of democracy. Let us study the programs of our schools and demonstrate our support for the work of our dedicated teachers. Let us take every opportunity to strengthen our educational system so that our young people can be prepared to meet the challenge imposed on our Nation by this competitive century.

NATIONAL EMPLOY THE PHYSICALLY HANDICAPPED WEEK, 1960

By the President of the United States of America
A Proclamation

WHEREAS it is in the American tradition to help others to help themselves; and

WHEREAS, by hiring the physically handicapped, we reaffirm our faith in the fundamental values of our free enterprise system and demonstrate the effective use of our manpower; and

WHEREAS equal opportunity for employment is basic to our belief in human dignity and should never be denied to any person because of physical impairment; and

WHEREAS the Congress, by a joint resolution approved August 11, 1945 (59 Stat. 530), has designated the first week

August 22, 1960

in October of each year as National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week and has requested the President to issue a suitable proclamation each year:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, do call upon the people of our Nation to observe the week beginning October 2, 1960, as National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week, and to cooperate with the President's Committee on Employment of the Physically Handicapped in carrying out the program for employment of the handicapped.

I also urge the Governors of States, mayors of cities, and other public officials, as well as leaders of industry, educational and religious groups, labor, civic, veterans', agricultural, women's, scientific, professional, and fraternal organizations, and all other interested organizations and individuals, including the handicapped themselves, to participate actively in this observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this twenty-second day of August in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred [SEAL] and sixty, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-fifth.
