Sec. 6. The succession of Federal Facilities Corporation is terminated and the Corporation is dissolved. The charter of the Corporation, as amended, is repealed.

Sec. 7. No suit, action, or other proceeding lawfully commenced by or against Federal Facilities Corporation before the dissolution of the Corporation shall abate by reason of such dissolution; but the court may, on motion or supplemental petition filed at any time within twelve months after such dissolution and showing a necessity for the survival of such suit, action, or other proceeding to obtain a settlement of the questions involved, allow the same to be maintained by or against the United States in such court. After the dissolution of the Corporation, any suit, action, or other proceeding which, but for such dissolution, would be commenced by or against the Corporation, shall be commenced by or against the United States in a Federal court of competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 8. In the event that title to any real property which was sold by the Rubber Producing Facilities Disposal Commission or by the Federal Facilities Corporation to private industry on credit, under mortgage, deed of trust, or similar arrangement, is acquired by the United States by reason of default by, or failure of performance of, the purchaser, or its successor in interest, of any of its obligations, such real property shall continue to be subject to special assessments for local improvements and to State, county, municipal, or local taxation to the same extent according to its value as other real property is taxed and the Administrator of General Services is authorized and directed to pay such special assessments and taxes.

Sec. 9. This Act shall take effect at the close of September 30, 1961. Effective date.

Public Law 87-191

AN ACT

To amend sections 337 and 4200 of the Revised Statutes of the United States so as to eliminate the oath requirement with respect to certain export manifests.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 4200 of the Revised Statutes of the United States (46 U.S.C. 92) is amended—

(1) by striking out “oath” in the first two sentences and inserting in lieu thereof “certification”;
(2) by striking out “upon oath” in the third sentence and inserting in lieu thereof “by certification”; and
(3) by striking out that portion of the fourth sentence preceding the proviso and inserting in lieu thereof “The certifications shall be in writing”.

Sec. 2. That section 337 of the Revised Statutes of the United States (15 U.S.C. 174) is amended by striking out “oath” in the third sentence of the paragraph numbered “Fifth” and inserting “certification”.

Approved August 31, 1961.
