Private Law 87-20

AN ACT
For the relief of Hans E. T. Hansen.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, notwithstanding the provision of section 212(a)(9) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Hans E. T. Hansen may be issued a visa and admitted to the United States for permanent residence if he is found to be otherwise admissible under the provisions of that Act: Provided, That this exemption shall apply only to a ground for exclusion of which the Department of State or the Department of Justice had knowledge prior to the enactment of this Act.

Private Law 87-21

AN ACT
For the relief of Maurice Devlin.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, notwithstanding the provisions of sections 212(a)(9), (17), and (19) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Maurice Devlin may be issued a visa and admitted to the United States for permanent residence if he is found to be otherwise admissible under the provisions of that Act: Provided, That these exemptions shall apply only to grounds for exclusion of which the Department of State or the Department of Justice had knowledge prior to the enactment of this Act.

Private Law 87-22

AN ACT
For the relief of Arthur B. Tindell.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there is hereby authorized and directed to be restored to the annual-leave account in the Federal civil service of Arthur B. Tindell, Burlingame, California, the sum of three hundred and ninety-two hours on the basis of the salary rate applicable to the said Arthur B. Tindell at the time of his unlawful removal from his position, and any payments made to him under the authority of this Act shall be reduced by the amount of income from other employment in the period from May 2, 1947, through July 11, 1947. Such hours are charged against the annual-leave account of the said Arthur B. Tindell during the period beginning on May 2, 1947, to July 11, 1947, by reason of the fact that the War Assets Administration, pursuant to a reduction in force, unlawfully placed the said Arthur B. Tindell in an annual-leave status.