Private Law 87-23

AN ACT
For the relief of Benjamin E. Campbell.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Benjamin E. Campbell, 1136 Lake Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, the sum of 221, in full satisfaction and final settlement of all claims of the said Benjamin E. Campbell against the United States for unpaid pay and family allowance incident to his military service from April 10, 1918, to July 1, 1919. Such sum represents the amount which was actually deducted from the military pay of the said Benjamin E. Campbell for a family allotment to his mother, and never paid to the beneficiary: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding 1,000.
