Private Law 87-203

AN ACT

For the relief of Harry Weinstein.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Harry Weinstein, of Palisades Park, New Jersey, the sum of $750. Such sum represents reimbursement to the said Harry Weinstein for payment made out of his own funds in settlement of a civil action brought against him before the Law Division of the New Jersey Superior Court, Bergen County, New Jersey, as the result of a motor vehicle accident occurring on December 14, 1957, when the said Harry Weinstein was operating a Government vehicle in the course of his duties as an employee of the Post Office Department: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved September 21, 1961.

AN ACT

For the relief of M. C. Pitts.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That notwithstanding the provisions of sections 15 to 20, inclusive, of the Federal Employees' Compensation Act, as amended (5 U.S.C. 765-770), the Secretary of Labor is authorized and directed (1) to consider any claim filed within one year after the enactment of this Act by M. C. Pitts, of Okeechobee, Florida, for compensation for disability resulting from an injury alleged to have been incurred by him on September 16, 1950, while performing services as postmaster at Okeechobee, Florida, and (2) to award to the said M. C. Pitts any compensation to which he would have been entitled had such claim been filed within the time and in the manner provided by such sections: Provided, That no benefits shall accrue by reason of the enactment of this Act for any period prior to its enactment, except in case of such medical or hospitalization expenditures as may be deemed reimbursable.

Approved September 21, 1961.

Private Law 87-205

AN ACT

For the relief of Mrs. Pamela Gough Walker.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, notwithstanding the provision of section 212(a)(4) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Mrs. Pamela Gough Walker may be issued a visa and admitted to the United States for permanent residence if she is found to be otherwise admissible under the provisions of such Act, under such conditions and controls as the Attorney General, after consultation with the Surgeon General of the United States Public Health Service, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, may deem necessary to impose: Provided, That, unless the beneficiary is entitled to care under chapter 55 of title 10, United States Code, a suitable and proper bond or undertaking, approved by the Attorney General, be deposited as prescribed by section 213 of the Immigration and Nationality Act: Provided further, That this exemption shall apply only to a ground for exclusion of which the Department of State or the Department of Justice had knowledge prior to the enactment of this Act.

Approved September 22, 1961.

AN ACT

For the relief of Woody W. Hackney of Fort Worth, Texas.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Woody W. Hackney of Fort Worth, Texas, the sum of $9,894.31. The payment of such sum shall be in full satisfaction of his claim against the United States for compensation for all losses directly or indirectly sustained by him through injury or damage to livestock, real property, crops, and equipment, and all losses in milk production, resulting from the crashing upon his real property on April 23, 1960, of an F-86L aircraft (SN 53-4085) while such aircraft was engaged in a training flight of the One Hundred and Thirty-sixth Air Defense Wing, Texas Air National Guard: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved September 22, 1961.
