necessary to impose: Provided, That unless the beneficiary is entitled to care under chapter 55, title 10, United States Code, a suitable and proper bond or undertaking, approved by the Attorney General, be deposited as prescribed by section 213 of the Immigration and Nationality Act: Provided further, That this exemption shall apply only to a ground for exclusion of which the Department of State or the Department of Justice had knowledge prior to the enactment of this Act.

Private Law 87-273

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, for the purposes of sections 101(a) (27) (A) and 205 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, the minor child, Fares Salem Salman Hamarneh, shall be held and considered to be the natural-born alien child of Mr. and Mrs. Sami Khalaf Hamarneh, citizens of the United States: Provided, That the natural parents of the said Fares Salem Salman Hamarneh shall not, by virtue of such parentage, be accorded any right, privilege, or status under the Immigration and Nationality Act.

Private Law 87-274

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, in the administration of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Annemarie Herrmann, the fiancee of Kenneth D. Hobble, a citizen of the United States, shall be eligible for a visa as a nonimmigrant temporary visitor for a period of three months: Provided, That the administrative authorities find that the said Annemarie Herrmann is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to the said Kenneth D. Hobble and that she is found to be otherwise admissible under the immigration laws. In the event the marriage between the above­ named persons does not occur within three months after the entry of the said Annemarie Herrmann, she shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with the provisions of sections 242 and 243 of the Immigration and Nationality Act. In the event that the marriage between the above-named persons shall occur within three months after the entry of the said Annemarie Herrmann, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of the said Annemarie Herrmann as of the date of the payment by her of the required visa fee.
