AN ACT

For the relief of Kenneth Stultz.

February 16, 1962
[H. R. 2147]

Kenneth Stultz.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Kenneth Stultz, of Columbia, Missouri, is hereby relieved of liability to the United States in the amount of $579.56, the amount by which he was overpaid as a regular clerk in the postal service during the periods from July 1, 1953, to May 17, 1957, inclusive, and from July 12, 1958, to April 30, 1960, inclusive. Such overpayments were made as a result of an administrative error on the part of the Post Office Department in determining the longevity increases to which he was entitled. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, credit shall be given for any amount for which liability is relieved by this Act.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Kenneth Stultz, of Columbia, Missouri, an amount equal to the aggregate of the amounts paid by him, or withheld from sums otherwise due him, in complete or partial satisfaction of the liability to the United States specified in the first section: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
