AN ACT

For the relief of Dimitri Elias Sartan.

Dimitri E.
Sartan.
66 Stat. 163.
8 USC 1101
note.

Quota deduction.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, for the purposes of the Immigration and Nationality Act, Dimitri Elias Sartan shall be held and considered to have been lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence as of the date of the enactment of this Act, upon payment of the required visa fee. Upon the granting of permanent residence to such alien as provided for in this Act, the Secretary of State shall instruct the proper quota-control officer to deduct one number from the appropriate quota for the first year that such quota is available.

AN ACT

For the relief of Walter H. Hanson.

Walter H.
Hanson.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Walter H. Hanson of Denver, Colorado, the sum of $7,680. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims of Walter H. Hanson against the United States on account of the loss of the mid fore leg of his right leg as the result of injuries sustained by him on May 13, 1957, while he was operating a mobile crane unloading sand and gravel from a scow at the Still Harbor Dock at the United States penitentiary at McNeil Island, Washington: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

This claim is not cognizable under the tort claims procedure.

Approved February 16, 1962.

AN ACT

For the relief of Mary C. Atkinson.

Mary C. Atkinson.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Mary C. Atkinson of Shawsville, Virginia, is hereby relieved of all liability to refund to the United States the sum of $400.58 representing overpayments of compensation for services she performed as an employee of the Post Office Department, which overpayments, through an administrative error, resulted from the fact that she was given credit for longevity compensation from the time that she was appointed to the position of assistant postmaster at the Shawsville, Virginia, post office on August 8, 1934, rather than from the time that she was appointed a temporary substitute clerk on February 16, 1945, at that post office.

Approved February 16, 1962.

AN ACT

To confer jurisdiction on the United States Court of Claims to hear, determine, and render judgment on the claim of George Edward Barnhart against the United States.

February 16, 1962
[H. R. 6025]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That jurisdiction is hereby conferred on the United States Court of Claims to hear, determine, and render judgment on the claim of George Edward Barnhart, of Altadena, California, against the United States for the unauthorized manufacture, use and/or sale by or for the United States since December 31, 1946, of inventions covered by the following enumerated patents of and owned by the said George Edward Barnhart: United States Letters Patents Numbered 1,854,444, 1,974,407, 2,005,965, 2,026,727, 2,026,728, 2,041,688, 2,070,705, 2,158,686.

SEC. 2. All defenses of the United States based on laches, lapse of time, or any statute of limitations are hereby waived. Proceedings for the determination of such claims, appeals therefrom, and payment of any judgment thereon, shall be in the same manner as in cases over which such court has jurisdiction pursuant to section 1491 of title 28 of the United States Code. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as an admission of liability on the part of the United States.

Approved February 16, 1962.

George E. Barnhart.
