AN ACT

For the relief of C. Edwin Alley.

October 11, 1962
[H. R. 2836]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to C. Edwin Alley, of Fairfax, Virginia, $1,000 in full settlement of all his claims against the United States and against any employee of the Government whose act or omission gave rise to the claim, by reason of an incident on March 26, 1960, in the Old Post Office Building in Washington, District of Columbia. Suit may not be instituted on such claims under the tort claims procedure as provided in title 28, United States Code. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be subject to any claim, by way of subrogation or otherwise, for reimbursement of workmen's compensation benefits paid on account of the incident referred to in this Act, and no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

C. Edwin Alley.
