BETHEL HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB

September 26, 1962
[H. Con. Res. 474]

Whereas the Bethel Home Demonstration Club, founded in Sumter County, South Carolina, in March of 1915, was the first home demonstration club in the United States; and

Whereas home demonstration clubs have been of great value to the people of the United States by aiding in the diffusion of knowledge and skills among the women of rural America; and

Whereas Winthrop College, the South Carolina college for women, pioneered in developing the concepts and in providing leadership for the home demonstration club movement; and

Whereas the year 1962 is the one hundredth anniversary year of the United States Department of Agriculture and of the land-grant college system: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That the Congress of the United States recognizes that the Bethel Home Demonstration Club of the Bethel Community, Sumter County, South Carolina, was the first such club to be established in the United States, and extends its greetings and felicitations to the Bethel Home Demonstration Club on the occasion of the one hundredth anniversary year of the establishment of the United States Department of Agriculture and the land-grant college system.
