AN ACT

To provide for the transfer of the United States vessel Alaska to the State of California for the use and benefit of the department of fish and game of such State.

August 9, 1962
[H. R. 3788]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed to convey to the State of California, for the use and benefit of the department of fish and game of such State, all right, title, and interest of the United States in and to the United States vessel Alaska. Such vessel is presently being operated by such department under a ten-year operating agreement entered into on June 22, 1957, between such department and the Secretary of the Interior, and has been extensively repaired and refitted for use as a biological research vessel at the expense of such State.
