AN ACT
For the relief of John William Horling.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That John William Horling, United States Navy, retired, of Grand Rapids, Michigan, is hereby relieved of liability in the amount of $22,756.34 representing an obligation to pay the United States the amount he received for the services he rendered the Post Office Department at Grand Rapids, Michigan, as a civilian employee (custodial laborer) from November 17, 1956, through June 29, 1962, which employment was subsequently held to have been subject to the restrictions of the Act of July 31, 1894 (5 U.S.C. 62).

Sec. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said John William Horling an amount equal to the aggregate of amounts paid by him, or withheld from sums otherwise due him including the lump-sum payment in complete or partial satisfaction of the liability to the United States specified in the first section.

Sec. 3. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
