Sec. 10. The Secretary shall make an annual report to the Congress during the first regular session of each year with respect to (1) payments made under this Act, (2) the facilities, by States, for which such payments were made, and (3) whether any portion of the appropriation available for allotment to any State has been withheld and, if so, the reasons therefor.

Sec. 11. (a) Any agricultural experiment station established by State law shall be eligible for benefits under this Act.

(b) With respect to any State in which more than one agricultural experiment station has been established, any appropriations allocated for the use of such State pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be divided between or among such institutions as the legislature of such State shall direct.

Sec. 12. There is hereby authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary for proper administration of this Act.

Approved July 22, 1963.

Public Law 88-75

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 6(a) of the Lead-Zinc Small Producers Stabilization Act of October 3, 1961 (75 Stat. 766, 768; 30 U.S.C. 686), is amended by (a) adding the following before the period at the end of clause (2): “Provided, That the principal product or products of such producer is either lead or zinc or a combination of lead and zinc”; and (b) adding the following clause: “(6) The term ‘principal product or products’ means that the dollar value of lead or zinc sold or the combination of lead and zinc sold must have been 50 per centum or more of the total dollar value of all minerals and metals contained in the ores and concentrates produced and sold by the small domestic producer, calculated on the basis of the product of the total metal and mineral content of the ores and concentrates sold, as determined from the settlement assays, and the quoted market prices of those metals or minerals at the time of the sale.”
