Proclamation 3531

MODIFYING PROCLAMATION NO. 3279, RELATING TO THE ADJUSTMENT OF IMPORTS OF PETROLEUM AND PETROLEUM PRODUCTS, WITH RESPECT TO THE DESIGNATION OF REPRESENTATIVES TO THE APPEALS BOARD CREATED PURSUANT TO THAT PROCLAMATION

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

Under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and the statutes, including Section 232 of the Trade Expansion Act of 1962 (Public Law 87–794), I, JOHN F. KENNEDY, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim that paragraph (a) of Section 4 of Proclamation No. 3279, as amended, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

"(a) The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to provide for the establishment and operation of an Appeals Board to consider petitions by persons affected by the regulations issued pursuant to Section 3 of this proclamation. The Appeals Board shall be comprised of a representative each from the Departments of the Interior, Defense, and Commerce to be designated respectively by the heads of such Departments."

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this nineteenth day of April in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-three, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-seventh.

JOHN F. KENNEDY

By the President:

DEAN RUSK,
Secretary of State.

Proclamation 3532

WORLD TRADE WEEK, 1963

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

WHEREAS the United States recognizes that international commerce through reciprocal world trade is a principal means to peace and prosperity; and

WHEREAS a successful United States commercial policy requires the profitable sale of United States goods in other countries to insure a favorable balance of international payments; and

WHEREAS the great American marketplace must meet, encourage, and welcome competitive challenges from the vigorous new nations not only to achieve a favorable balance of payments but also to serve as inspiration and strength for all countries; and

April 19, 1963

April 20, 1963
WHEREAES, although increasing the sale of United States goods abroad is vital to the United States domestic economy, private enterprise must nevertheless continue to practice the fundamental American belief that initiative and competition in business must be exercised with responsibility and morality toward all people:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOHN F. KENNEDY, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim the week beginning May 19, 1963, as World Trade Week; and I request the appropriate Federal, State, and local officials to cooperate in the observance of that week.

I also urge business, labor, agriculture, educational and civic groups, as well as the people of the United States generally, to observe World Trade Week with gatherings, discussions, exhibits, ceremonies, and other appropriate activities designed to promote continuing awareness of the importance of world trade to our economy and our relations with other nations.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this twentieth day of April in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-three, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-seventh.

JOHN F. KENNEDY

By the President:

DEAN RUSK,
Secretary of State.

Proclamation 3533

UNITED NATIONS DAY, 1963

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

WHEREAS the United Nations symbolizes man's eternal quest for enduring peace with justice, and provides us with our most promising means for achieving that high purpose; and

WHEREAS the United Nations has, on numerous occasions during its brief life, clearly and forcefully demonstrated its value as a vital diplomatic forum in times of international crises; and

WHEREAS the United Nations, through its participation in programs for social and economic development, has provided significant material assistance and leadership throughout the world in efforts to raise standards of life; and

WHEREAS the United Nations actively sponsors and advances the cause of human rights; and

WHEREAS the United Nations serves the interests of this Nation by promoting humanitarian principles which we share; and

WHEREAS citizens of the United States should recognize the aims and accomplishments of the United Nations; and
