AN ACT

For the relief of Rebecca K. Clayton.

March 26, 1964
[H. R. 1759]

Rebecca K.
Clayton.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Rebecca K. Clayton, of Ridgeville, South Carolina, is relieved of liability to the United States in the amount of $1,053.85, representing the amount charged her by the United States for transporting the excess weight of her household goods, professional books, papers, and equipment from Munich, Germany, to Ridgeville, South Carolina, in June 1959, as a civilian employee of the Department of the Army. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, credit shall be given for amounts for which liability is relieved by this Act.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said Rebecca K. Clayton an amount equal to the aggregate of the amounts paid by her, or withheld from sums otherwise due her, in complete or partial satisfaction of the liability to the United States specified in the first section: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sums not exceeding $1,000.

Approved March 26, 1964.
