AN ACT

For the relief of Robert L. Johnston.

Robert L.
Johnston.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Robert L. Johnston, a Regular Army retired warrant officer, is relieved of liability to pay to the United States the sum certified to the Comptroller General of the United States by the Secretary of the Army as the aggregate of amounts of compensation paid to the said Robert L. Johnston in connection with his civilian employment with the Department of the Army from June 17, 1959, through March 20, 1963, which employment has been held to have been in violation of section 2 of the Act of July 31, 1894 (5 U.S.C. 62). In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, credit shall be given for amounts for which liability is relieved by this section.

28 Stat. 205;
Ante, p. 492.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Robert L. Johnston of Houston, Texas, the sum certified to him by the Secretary of the Army as the aggregate of amounts withheld by the United States from amounts due the said Robert L. Johnston from the United States, or paid to the United States by the said Robert L. Johnston, on or before the date of enactment of this Act, on account of the liability for which relief is granted by the first section of this Act. No part of the amount appropriated in this section shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved August 30, 1964.
