SEC. 8. The regulations and licenses authorized by this Act shall be in full force and effect only during the convention period, but the expiration of said period shall not prevent the arrest or trial of any person for any violation of such regulations committed during the time they were in force and effect. Such regulations shall be published in one or more of the daily newspapers published in the District of Columbia and no penalty prescribed for the violation of any such regulation shall be enforced until five days after such publication. Any person violating any regulation promulgated by the Commissioners under the authority of this Act shall be fined not more than $100 or imprisoned for not more than thirty days. Each and every day a violation of any such regulation exists shall constitute a separate offense, and the penalty prescribed shall be applicable to each such separate offense.

SEC. 9. Whenever any provision of this Act requires the corporation to indemnify and save harmless the District of Columbia and the Federal Government or any agency thereof against loss, damage, or liability arising out of the acts of the corporation or its licensee, or to give bond to an agency of the Federal Government guaranteeing the safe return of property belonging to such agency, the requirements of any such provision shall be deemed satisfied upon the submission by the corporation to the Commissioners and the Secretary of the Interior on behalf of the several agencies of the Federal Government, of an insurance policy or bond, or both an insurance policy and bond, in such amount or amounts and subject to such terms and conditions, as the said officials in their discretion approve as being necessary to protect the interests of the respective governments.

SEC. 10. Nothing in this Act shall be applicable to the United States Capitol Buildings or Grounds or other properties under the jurisdiction of the Congress or any committee, commission, or officer thereof.

Public Law 89-26

AN ACT

To amend title 37, United States Code, to authorize payment of special allowances to dependents of members of the uniformed services to offset expenses incident to their evacuation, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That title 37, United States Code, is amended as follows:

(1) The following new section is inserted after section 405:

§ 405a. Travel and transportation allowances: evacuation allowances

“(a) Under regulations prescribed by the Secretaries concerned, when dependents of members of the uniformed services are ordered evacuated by competent authority from places outside the United States to places inside the United States, they may be authorized such allowances as the Secretary concerned determines necessary to offset the expenses incident to the evacuation. Allowances authorized by this section are in addition to those authorized by any other section of this title. For the purposes of this section, a dependent 'ordered evacuated by competent authority' includes—

“(1) a dependent who is present at or in the vicinity of the member's duty station when the evacuation of dependents is ordered by competent authority and who actually moves to an authorized safe haven designated by that authority, whether such safe haven is at or in the vicinity of the member's duty station or elsewhere;

“(2) a dependent who established a household at or in the vicinity of the member's duty station but who is temporarily absent therefrom for any reason when evacuation of dependents is ordered by competent authority; and

“(3) a dependent who was authorized to join the member and who departed from his former place of residence incident to joining the member but who, as a result of the evacuation of dependents, is diverted to a safe haven designated by competent authority or is authorized to travel to a place the dependent may designate, even though he was in the United States when the evacuation was ordered.

“(b) Under regulations prescribed by the Secretaries concerned, each member whose dependents are covered by subsection (a) of this section is entitled to have one motor vehicle owned by him and for his personal use, or the use of the dependents, transported at the expense of the United States to a designated place for the use of the dependents. When the dependents are permitted to rejoin the member, the vehicle may be transported at the expense of the United States to his permanent duty station.”

(2) The analysis of chapter 7 is amended by inserting the following new item:

“405a. Travel and transportation allowances: evacuation allowances.”

(3) Section 407(a) is amended by inserting the words “, or whose dependents are covered by section 405a(a) of this title” after the word “station”.

(4) Section 407(b) is amended—

(A) by striking out the word “or” at the end of clause (1);

(B) by striking out the period at the end of clause (2) and inserting the word “; or” in place thereof; and

(C) by adding the following after clause (2):

“(3) the member's dependents are covered by section 405a(a) of this title.”

(5) Section 411(a) is amended by inserting the figure “405a,” after the figure “405,”.

(6) Section 1006 is amended—

(A) by adding the following sentence at the end of subsection (c): “The Secretary concerned or his designee may waive any right of recovery of not more than one month's basic pay advanced under this subsection if he finds that recovery of the advance would be against equity and good conscience or against the public interest.”; and

(B) by adding at the end:

“(g) Under regulations prescribed by the Secretary concerned, the dislocation allowance authorized by section 407 of this title for a member of a uniformed service whose dependents are covered by section 405a(a) of this title may be paid in advance of the evacuation of the dependents and to the dependents designated by the member.”

Sec. 2. This Act becomes effective on February 1, 1965, and terminates on June 30, 1966.

Approved May 22, 1965.
