Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the town of Kure Beach, North Carolina, the sum of $100,000, which sum was determined by the Court of Claims in congressional case numbered 2-60, decided December 11, 1964, to be the amount equitably due to the town of Kure Beach in full settlement of its claims against the United States based upon the impairment of the collateral value of bonds issued by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation caused by the taking of a buffer zone by the Army extending across the Cape Fear River and into the town of Kure Beach and the resulting partial frustration of the town's obligation to the Housing and Home Finance Agency, holder of the bonds. The amount authorized by this Act is to be paid the town of Kure Beach, North Carolina, on the condition that it be paid to the Housing and Home Finance Agency in accordance with the stipulation entered into by the parties in the proceedings before the Court of Claims in Congressional Case No. 2-60 and referred to in the decision of the Court. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
