

INTER-AMERICAN BAR
ASSOCIATION, FOURTEENTH CONFERENCE

April 29, 1965
[H. Con. Res. 349]

Whereas the Inter-American Bar Association was organized at Washington, District of Columbia, May 16, 1940, and is now celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of its founding; and

Whereas the Inter-American Bar Association will hold its fourteenth conference at San Juan, Puerto Rico, during the period May 22-29, 1965; and

Whereas this is the first time that the Inter-American Bar Association has planned a conference in the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; and

Whereas three previous conferences of the association have been held in the United States; and

Whereas the purposes of the association, as stated in its constitution, are to establish and maintain relations between associations and organizations of lawyers, national and local, in the various countries of the Americas, to provide a forum for exchange of views, and to encourage cordial intercourse and fellowship among the lawyers of the Western Hemisphere; and

Whereas the high character of this international association, its deliberations, and its members can do much to encourage understanding, friendship, and cordial relations among the countries of the Western Hemisphere; and

Whereas there were adopted by the Eightieth Congress, in its second session, and by the Eighty-sixth Congress, in its first session, concurrent resolutions of welcome and good wishes to the Inter-American Bar Association on the occasion of its holding conferences in the United States: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That the Congress of the United States welcomes the Inter-American Bar Association during its fourteenth conference to be held in the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and wishes the association outstanding success in accomplishing its purposes; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Secretary General of the Inter-American Bar Association.

Passed April 29, 1965.

Welcome and good wishes.

DAG HAMMARSKJOLD
MEMORIAL REDWOOD GROVE

May 4, 1965
[H. Con. Res. 305]

Whereas the Dag Hammarskjold International Foundation, the American Association for the United Nations, the State of California Dag Hammarskjold Memorial Grove Committee and numerous cooperating groups including the Save-the-Redwoods League are carrying forward the proposal for a Dag Hammarskjold Memorial Redwood Grove; and

Whereas the life of Dag Hammarskjold was in concordance with the deep and pervading majesty of the redwoods, among which we find spiritual refuge and gain a more profound realization of his own thought that "we each have within us a center of stillness surrounded by silence," and

Whereas Dag Hammarskjold, until his death on September 17, 1961, served eight years as Secretary-General of the United Nations, carrying on his widely significant and courageous search for world peace; and

Whereas by their very grandeur the giant redwoods imbue us with a stronger realization of human dignity, tolerance, and stateliness so characteristic of Dag Hammarskjöld's life: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring),
That it is the sense of the Congress that it is appropriate to designate a grove of redwood trees as selected by the State of California, as the Dag Hammarskjöld Memorial Redwood Grove.
