AN ACT

To amend the Agricultural Act of 1949 and the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, to take into consideration floods and other natural disasters in reference to the feed grains, cotton, and wheat programs for 1965.

Feed grains, cotton, wheat programs, 1965. Floods, other natural disasters. 77 Stat. 44. 7 USC 1441 note.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 105(d) of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"An acreage on the farm which the Secretary finds was not planted to feed grains in 1965 because of flood, drought, or other natural disaster shall be deemed by the Secretary to be an actual acreage of feed grains planted on the farm for harvest for purposes of this subsection, provided such acreage is not subsequently devoted to any price supported crop for 1965.”

Sec. 2. Section 103(b) of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

“For purposes of this subsection, an acreage on the farm which the Secretary finds was not planted to cotton in 1965 because of flood, drought, or other natural disaster shall be deemed by the Secretary to be an actual acreage of cotton planted on the farm for harvest, provided such acreage is not subsequently devoted to any price supported crop for 1965”.

Sec. 3. Section 379c(a) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

AN ACT

To amend section 501(e) of title 16 of the District of Columbia Code relating to bond requirements in connection with attachment before judgment.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 501(e) of title 16 of the District of Columbia Code is amended by inserting, immediately before the period at the end thereof, a semicolon and the following: “except that in any case in which the plaintiff states in his affidavit that the value of specified property to be levied upon is less than the amount of his claim, the court may set the amount of such bond in an amount twice the value of the property being attached, and, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (f) of this section, only the property so specified shall be levied upon: Provided, That the United States marshal may, in his discretion, when levying upon such property, have the same appraised by an independent appraiser retained by the marshal at the expense of the plaintiff. Any such appraisal shall be made at the time the marshal levies upon the property, and the appraiser shall accompany him for such purpose. If such appraisal has been made, then only such property as may have a value not exceeding one-half of the amount of the bond shall be attached. In the event the appraised value of the property shall be more than one-half of the amount of the bond, the marshal may refuse to execute the writ unless and until the amount of the bond is increased so as to be at least twice the value of the property to be attached”.
