

“(i) representatives of local union central bodies or similar labor union organizations are consulted;

“(ii) such paid employment will not result in the displacement of employed workers, or be applied in skills, crafts, or trades in which there is a surplus of available gainful labor in the locality, or impair existing contracts for services; and

“(iii) the rates of pay and other conditions of employment will not be less than those paid or provided for work of similar nature in the locality in which the work is to be performed.

A prisoner authorized to work at paid employment in the community under this subsection may be required to pay, and the Attorney General is authorized to collect, such costs incident to the prisoner's confinement as the Attorney General deems appropriate and reasonable. Collections shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts.

“(d) The willful failure of a prisoner to remain within the extended limits of his confinement, or to return within the time prescribed to an institution or facility designated by the Attorney General, shall be deemed an escape from the custody of the Attorney General punishable as provided in chapter 35 of this title.

“(e) The authority conferred upon the Attorney General by this section shall extend to all persons committed to the National Training School for Boys.

“(f) As used in this section—

“the term ‘facility’ shall include a residential community treatment center; and

“the term ‘relative’ shall mean a spouse, child (including step-child, adopted child or child as to whom the prisoner, though not a natural parent, has acted in the place of a parent), parent (including a person who, though not a natural parent, has acted in the place of a parent), brother, or sister.”

SEC. 2. The chapter analysis of section 4082 of title 18, United States Code, is amended to read:

“Sec. 4082. Commitment to Attorney General; residential treatment centers, extension of limits of confinement; work furlough.”

SEC. 3. Sections 751 and 752 of title 18, United States Code, are amended by inserting the words “or facility” following the word “institution”.
