For the relief of Nathan Levine.

November 2, 1966
[H. R. 7026]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Nathan Levine, of New York, New York, is hereby relieved of liability to the United States in the amount of $2,287.80, the amount of an overpayment to him of salary retention payments in the period beginning July 1, 1962, and ending in November 1964, because of an administrative error. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, credit shall be given for any amount for which liability is relieved by this Act.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to said Nathan Levine, an amount equal to the aggregate of the amounts paid by him, or withheld from sums otherwise due him, in complete or partial satisfaction of the liability to the United States specified in the first section. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Nathan Levine.

Approved November 2, 1966.

AN ACT

For the relief of Charles A. Turner.

Charles A.
Turner.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Charles A. Turner, the sum of $2,551.18 in full settlement of all his claims against the United States incurred as the result of his being required to remain outside the United States after completion of service with the United States Government, and in excess of that time period during which he would have received settlement of such claim, because of the debilitating and terminal illness of his wife which resulted in her death outside of the United States.
