Private Law 89-399

AN ACT

For the relief of Leonard J. Dalton.

November 2, 1966
[H. R. 10662]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled. That Leonard J. Dalton, of San Diego, California, is hereby relieved of all liability to the United States in the amount of $9,588.72 based upon the compensation paid him for services rendered to the United States as an employee of the Treasury Department in the period from July 1, 1963, through November 30, 1964, inclusive, based upon a subsequent determination that his civilian employment was subject to the restrictions of the Dual Employment Act of 1894 (5 U.S.C. 62) and the Dual Compensation Act of 1932 (5 U.S.C. 59a) due to his retired status as a chief warrant officer.

Leonard J.
Dalton.28 USC 205;
78 Stat. 492.
47 Stat. 406;
78 Stat. 494.

Sec. 2. That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Leonard J. Dalton the aggregate of any amounts repaid or withheld from amounts otherwise due him by reason of the liability referred to in section 1 of this Act. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Sec. 3. For the purpose of the application and administration of the civil service laws, the service of the said Leonard J. Dalton in the period referred to in section 1 of this Act shall be held and considered to have been proper under applicable law, and to have been creditable service for the purpose of leave, seniority, and retirement credit.

Approved November 2, 1966.
