For the relief of James R. Kemp.

James R. Kemp.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That James F. Kemp, of Juneau, Alaska, is hereby relieved of all liability for repayment to the United States of the sum of $5,142.81, representing overpayments of salary which he received as a civilian employee of the Alaska communications system, Department of the Air Force, for the period from April 22, 1962, through June 26, 1965, as a result of administrative error in establishing his basic salary at the rate of GS-12, step 6, plus cost-of-living allowance, when he was released from a wage board position at Ketchikan, Alaska, in order to accept a position under the Classification Act of 1949 at Juneau, Alaska, effective April 22, 1962, the said James R. Kemp having consulted officials of the Alaska communications system prior to his change of position and been erroneously assured that his basic salary would be established at such rate, plus such cost-of-living allowance. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, full credit shall be given for the amount for which liability is relieved by this Act.
