For the relief of Chester E. Davis.

Chester E.
Davis.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Chester E. Davis the sum of $2,000. The payment of such sum shall be in full satisfaction of all claims of the said Chester E. Davis against the United States for clothing, furniture, and household effects lost by him while serving in Cuba as an attaché of the Department of Agriculture, the said Chester E. Davis having been forced to abandon such clothing, furniture, and household effects in such country when the United States and Cuba broke diplomatic relations: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

AN ACT

For the relief of Nicholas S. Cvetan, United States Air Force (retired).

Nicholas S.
Cvetan, USAF.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Nicholas S. Cvetan, United States Air Force (retired), the sum of $2,556. The payment of such sum shall be in full satisfaction of all claims of the said Nicholas S. Cvetan against the United States for emergency cost-of-living allowances for the period May 9, 1965, through July 18, 1965, during which his dependents, pursuant to instructions of superior military authority, temporarily resided in Lima, Peru, until dependents of military personnel stationed at Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, were authorized to return to the Dominican Republic, the said Nicholas S. Cvetan having had his dependents with him while he was on authorized leave and visiting Lima, Peru, at the time all dependents were ordered evacuated from Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a
