AN ACT

October 12, 1968
[S. 910]

For the relief of the estate of Patrick E. Eagan.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the estate of Patrick E. Eagan of Fairbanks, Alaska, is hereby relieved of all liability for repayment to the United States of the sum of $4,271.36, representing overpayments of salary received by him as an employee of the Post Office Department at Fairbanks, Alaska, for the period from October 19, 1956, through April 27, 1962, the Post Office Department having failed to deduct from his salary, pursuant to section 13(b) of the Civil Service Retirement Act, as amended (5 U.S.C. 2263(b)), an amount equal to the amount the said Patrick E. Eagan was entitled to receive in civil service retirement annuity payments during said period. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, full credit shall be given for the amount for which liability is relieved by this Act.

Patrick E.
Eagan estate.

70 Stat. 756.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Margaret Eagan, widow of the said Patrick E. Eagan, the sum of any amounts received or withheld from him on account of the overpayments referred to in the first section of this Act. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved October 12, 1968.
