VETERANS—PRIORITY IN EMPLOYMENT

Whereas the members of the Armed Forces of the United States are and have been making great personal sacrifices to defend freedom and bring justice and peace to the world; and

Whereas the veterans of the Armed Forces who have served in Vietnam or elsewhere are deserving of the gratitude and respect of the Government and people of the United States and deserving of assistance from such Government and people in connection with the major problems of transition to civilian life; and

Whereas one of the most immediate and acute needs of members of the Armed Forces upon discharge from the service is to obtain early and suitable employment in positions which will enable them to be self-reliant, which will provide meaning, purpose, and fulfillment in their lives, and which will assist the United States in the solution of its pressing problems and in providing a better foundation for its continued growth: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That it is hereby declared to be the sense of the Congress that each department and agency of the United States—

(1) shall endeavor, to the maximum practicable extent, to provide employment with the United States Government for veterans of the Armed Forces of the United States who have served in Vietnam or elsewhere;
