[H. R. 18086]

To authorize the Commissioner of the District of Columbia to sell or exchange certain real property owned by the District in Prince William County, Virginia.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Commissioner of the District of Columbia (hereinafter, "Commissioner" and "District") is authorized to convey to Prince William County, in the Commonwealth of Virginia, all right, title, and interest of the District in and to a portion, not in excess of thirty-seven acres, of certain real property owned by the District and located in that county, comprised of approximately three hundred fifty and four-tenths acres of land and more particularly described in a deed conveying such real property to the District and recorded on May 22, 1922, in liber 77, folio 55, in the clerk's office of the circuit court of Prince William County. Such conveyance to Prince William County shall be in consideration, among other considerations, of the issuance to the District by the county authorities of a permit or permits to establish and operate a sanitary landfill for the disposal of refuse in an area of the county determined by the District of Columbia to be suitable for such use.

Prince William
County, Va.
Conveyance.

SEC. 2. The Commissioner is further authorized to transfer to the Secretary of the Interior jurisdiction over all or any part of the balance of the property described in the first section, including such portions of the property as may be described as "wetlands", by which term is meant those low-lying portions of the property in the nature of a marsh, swamp, bog, pothole, swale, glade, slash, overflow land of river flats, pool, slough, hole, as well as those areas necessary to protect the natural features of a contiguous wetland area. The area encompassed by the definition of wetlands is to be determined jointly by the Commissioner and the Secretary of the Interior. Such transfer to the Secretary of the Interior may be in consideration of the payment by him to the District of such sum or sums as may be agreed upon, or in exchange for land under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Interior which may be put to some municipal use by the District, approximately equal in value or area, or both value and area, to the land transferred by the District to the Secretary.

SEC. 3. Beginning three years after the effective date of this Act, the Commissioner is authorized to sell, or to exchange for other real property suitable for use by the District, all or any part of so much of the balance of the property described in the first section, not including the wetlands, as has not been transferred to the jurisdiction of the Department of the Interior, pursuant to section 2, within three years after enactment of this Act. Any such sale or exchange may either be on the basis of competitive bids or by negotiation, as the Commissioner determines is in the best interest of the District of Columbia. The Commissioner is further authorized to pay the reasonable and necessary expenses of the sale or exchange of such land, and shall deposit the net proceeds of any such sale in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia.
