

DOCTOR ROBERT H. GODDARD—MEMORIAL MUSEUM

September 14, 1970
[S. Con. Res. 49]

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring). That the Congress hereby recognizes the Goddard Rocket and Space Museum of the Roswell Museum and Art Center, Roswell, New Mexico, as a fitting memorial to Doctor Robert H. Goddard, who pioneered in rocket experimentation and contributed to America's success in landing men on the moon, and who is known as the "Father of the Rocket", and as an appropriate and outstanding institution for the collection, preservation, and display of the works and memorabilia of Doctor Goddard.

Agreed to September 14, 1970.

NATIONAL CANCER CRUSADE

September 30, 1970
[H. Con. Res. 675]

Whereas cancer is a disease that has taken an enormous toll of lives and caused universal anguish and suffering; and
Whereas the Congress and the Nation have been committed to the elimination of cancer since 1938; and
Whereas despite this commitment more than three hundred and seventy-five thousand Americans will die from cancer in the year of 1970; and
Whereas cancer research shows imminent promise of significant breakthrough in several forms of the disease: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That it is the sense of the Congress that the conquest of cancer is a national crusade to be accomplished by 1976 as an appropriate commemoration of the two hundredth anniversary of the independence of our country; and be it further

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Congress that sufficient funds be appropriated necessary for a program of cancer research and for the buildings and equipment with which to conduct the research and for whatever other purposes are necessary to the crusade so that the citizens of this land and of all other lands may be delivered from the greatest medical scourge in history.

Appropriation for research.
