Private Law 92-93

AN ACT

For the relief of Staff Sergeant J. C. Bell, Junior, United States Air Force.

June 30, 1972
[H. R. 3227]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $3,992.80 to Staff Sergeant J. C. Bell, Junior, of Las Vegas, Nevada, in full settlement of his claim against the United States for reimbursement for medical and hospital expenses incurred by him in 1968 in Wichita, Kansas, on behalf of his dependent mother as the result of erroneous information given him by Air Force personnel concerning the availability of facilities for the treatment of his mother at Government medical facilities. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with such claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

S. Sgt. J. C.
Bell, Jr., USAF.

Approved June 30, 1972.
