WORLD FOOD CONFERENCE OF 1976—CONGRESSIONAL ENDORSEMENT

Whereas the means of producing, processing and distributing food in nutritionally adequate quantities to feed an increasing world population is an awesome problem confronting the world today; and Whereas the land grant colleges of the United States have made notable contributions to increased agricultural efficiency and improved quality of food and feed crops, particularly through developments in soybean and maize crops, animal breeding and feeding efficiency, farm machinery, and the dissemination of information to farmers and consumers; and Whereas the Iowa State University of Science and Technology, one of the Nation's foremost land grant colleges, will host the World Food Conference of 1976 in Ames, Iowa, from June 27 through July 1, 1976; and Whereas the subject of the World Food Conference of 1976 will be "The Role of the Professional in Feeding Mankind"; and Whereas such conference will bring together scientists and scholars from many disciplines and many countries for the purpose of sharing and increasing agricultural and nutritional knowledge among the world's scientists and teachers, and for the purpose of accelerating the development of methods of food production, processing, and distribution that will result in improved capabilities for meeting the food and nutritional needs of all the people of the world; and Whereas the American Revolution Bicentennial Administration has endorsed the World Food Conference of 1976 as a bicentennial projet of national and international significance: Now, therefore, be it
