[H.R. 1436]

For the relief of William H. Klusmeier, publisher of the Austin Citizen, of Austin, Texas.

William H.
Klusmeier.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That William H. Klusmeier, publisher of the Austin Citizen, of Austin, Texas, is relieved of all liability for payment to the United States of the sum of $6,575.23, representing the difference between the amount which should have been paid and the amount actually paid by the said William H. Klusmeier for postage on second-class mailings of the Austin Citizen for the period from March 5, 1973, to August 10, 1974, such underpayment having resulted from his reliance upon postal rates specified in good faith by the appropriate postmaster although such rates were erroneous.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said William H. Klusmeier sum of any amounts received from him on account of the underpayment referred to in the first section of this Act. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
