Public Law 96-332
96th Congress

An Act

To amend title III of the Marine Protection, Research, and Sanctuaries Act of 1972, as amended, to authorize appropriations for such title for fiscal years 1980 and 1981, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

That section 301 of the Marine Protection, Research, and Sanctuaries Act of 1972 (16 U.S.C. 1431) is amended by adding at the end thereof a new sentence to read as follows: "The term 'State', when used in this title, means any of the several States or any territory or possession of the United States which has a popularly elected Governor."

(1) in subsection (b), by inserting "(1)" after "(b)", by striking out the second sentence thereof, and by inserting at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(2) A designation under this section shall become effective unless—

(A) the Governor of any State described in paragraph (1) certifies to the Secretary, before the end of the sixty-day period beginning on the date of the publication of the designation, that the designation or any of its terms described in subsection (f)(1), are unacceptable to his State, in which case those terms certified as unacceptable will not be effective in the waters described in paragraph (1) in such State until the Governor withdraws his certification of unacceptable; or

(B) both Houses of Congress adopt a concurrent resolution in accordance with subsection (h) which disapproves the designation or any of its terms described in subsection (f)(1).

The Secretary may withdraw the designation after any such certification or resolution of disapproval. If the Secretary does not withdraw the designation, only those portions of the designation not certified as unacceptable under subparagraph (A) or not disapproved under subparagraph (B) shall take effect."

(2) by amending subsection (f) to read as follows:

"(f)(1) The terms of the designation shall include the geographic area included within the sanctuary; the characteristics of the area that give it conservation, recreational, ecological or esthetic value; and the types of activities that will be subject to regulation by the Secretary in order to protect those characteristics. The terms of the designation may be modified only by the same procedures through which an original designation is made.

(2) The Secretary, after consultation with other interested Federal and State agencies, shall issue necessary and reasonable regulations to implement the terms of the designation and control the activities described in it, except that all permits, licenses, and other authorizations issued pursuant to any other authority shall be valid unless such regulations otherwise provide."
“(3) The Secretary shall conduct such research as is necessary and reasonable to carry out the purposes of this title.

“(4) The Secretary and the Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating shall conduct such enforcement activities as are necessary and reasonable to carry out the purposes of this title. The Secretary shall, whenever appropriate and in consultation with the Secretary of the department in which the Coast Guard is operating, utilize by agreement the personnel, services, and facilities of other Federal departments, agencies, and instrumentalities, or State agencies or instrumentalities, whether on a reimbursable or a nonreimbursable basis in carrying out his responsibilities under this title.”; and

(3) by inserting at the end thereof the following new subsection:

“(h)(1) For purposes of subsection (b)(2)(B), the Secretary shall transmit to the Congress a designation of a marine sanctuary at the time of its publication. The concurrent resolution described in subsection (b)(2)(B) is a concurrent resolution which is adopted by both Houses of Congress before the end of the first period of sixty calendar days of continuous session of Congress after the date on which the designation is transmitted, the matter after the resolving clause of which is as follows: That the Congress does not favor the taking of effect of the following terms of the marine sanctuary designation numbered transmitted to Congress by the Secretary of Commerce on , the blank space being filled with the number of the designation, the second blank space being filled with the date of the transmittal, and the third blank space being filled with the terms of the designation which are disapproved (or the phrase ‘the entire designation’ if the entire designation is disapproved).

“(2) For the purpose of paragraph (1) of this subsection—

“(A) continuity of session is broken only by an adjournment of Congress sine die; and

“(B) the days on which either House is not in session because of an adjournment of more than three days to a day certain are excluded in the computation of the sixty-day period.

“(3) A designation which becomes effective, or that portion of a designation which takes effect under subsection (b), shall be printed in the Federal Register.”.
(1) by striking out "and" immediately after "fiscal year 1977,";
and
(2) by adding immediately after "fiscal year 1978" the following: "and not to exceed $2,250,000 for fiscal year 1981".
