Joint Resolution

Designating the week of October 5 through October 11, 1980, as “National Diabetes Week”.

Whereas diabetes kills more Americans than all other diseases except cancer and cardiovascular diseases; and

Whereas ten million Americans suffer from diabetes and $5,300,000,000 annually are used for health care costs, disability payments, and lost wage costs due to diabetes; and

Whereas a national awareness of the diabetes problem may stimulate interest and concern leading to increased research and eventually a cure for diabetes: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the week of October 5 through October 11, 1980, is designated as “National Diabetes Week”, and the President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe that week with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

Approved April 2, 1980.
