

Private Law 96-76
96th Congress

An Act

For the relief of Gerald W. Frye.

Dec. 18, 1980

[S. 1307]

Gerald W. Frye.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of Defense is authorized and directed to pay out of any appropriations or other funds available for the reimbursement of relocation expenses under section 5724a of title 5, United States Code, to Gerald W. Frye, $4,212.30. Such sum shall be in full satisfaction of any claim by Gerald W. Frye, an employee of the Defense Logistics Agency transferred from Orlando, Florida, to Burlington, North Carolina, for expenses—

(1) which were incurred in connection with the sale of his residence, and

(2) for which he would have been reimbursed under section 5724a and the implementing regulations but for the fact such sale was not completed within the required time limit prescribed in paragraph 2-6.13 of the Federal Travel Regulations, FPMR 101-7, May 1973, because of his reliance on erroneous information given him by an officer of such agency.

SEC. 2. No part of the amount appropriated by this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Violation of the provisions of this section is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed $1,000.

Approved December 18, 1980.

Private Law 96-77
96th Congress

An Act

For the relief of James R. Thornwell.

Dec. 18, 1980

[S. 1615]

James R.
Thornwell.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, $625,000 to the trustee designated pursuant to section 2 of this Act for the benefit of James R. Thornwell, originally of South Carolina and now of Oakland, California. Such sum shall be in full satisfaction for the severe physical, psychological, and economic damage, including pain, suffering, emotional distress, trauma, and permanent injuries, inflicted upon James R. Thornwell as a result of the administration by Army personnel of LSD to him in 1961 without his knowledge or consent after subjecting him for six preceding weeks to extreme physical and emotional stress, as part of an Army drug testing program in which he was the only American subject, and as a result of the concealment by the Army of the use of LSD from James R. Thornwell for
