CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS—MAR. 18, 1980

TUNISIA—U.S. ECONOMIC AND SECURITY ASSISTANCE

Whereas Tunisia has demonstrated its desire to foster and maintain close and friendly relations with the United States;
Whereas Tunisia under President Bourguiba has achieved impressive progress in economic growth and has sought to achieve, consistent with the policy of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, self-sustaining economic growth with equitable distribution of benefits for its people;
Whereas Tunisia, despite its policy of pursuing amicable relations with its neighbors, is now the victim of foreign subversion and possible aggression; and
Whereas Tunisia merits and needs the support of its friends and allies in facing this threat to its independence and territorial integrity: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring).

That it is the sense of the Congress that recent foreign-inspired attempts to undermine the stability of Tunisia constitute a serious threat to international peace and security and to the national security interests of the United States, of the nations of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, and of all nations in the Mediterranean area.

Sec. 2. It is further the sense of the Congress that the United States should take steps to help Tunisia meet this unprovoked threat to its freedom and security by furnishing appropriate levels of economic and security assistance.

Agreed to March 18, 1980.

CORRECTIONS IN ENROLLED BILL H.R. 4986

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring).

That in the enrollment of the bill (H.R. 4986), to amend the Federal Reserve Act to authorize the automatic transfer of funds, to authorize negotiable order-of-withdrawal accounts at depository institutions, to authorize federally chartered savings and loan associations to establish remote service units, and to authorize federally insured credit unions to maintain share draft accounts, and for other purposes, the Clerk of the House of Representatives shall make the following corrections:

In proposed section 19(b)(8)(D)(i) of the Federal Reserve Act (as contained in section 103 of the bill), insert “of 1980” after “Control Act”.
