Forest Service—Seventy-Fifth Anniversary

Whereas the forest resources of the United States are one of the Nation's most important assets; and Whereas the management of those resources for the sustained production of goods and services for the benefit of the public is a declared policy of the Congress; and Whereas the Forest Service, United States Department of Agriculture, is charged with providing national leadership in forestry and carries out this responsibility through the management of the national forest system, by cooperation with States and private landowners, and by conducting forestry research; and Whereas the public interest has been well served by the Forest Service, United States Department of Agriculture, since its founding in 1905: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring),
