STUDY OF FOREIGN LANGUAGES AND CULTURES IN EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

Dec. 8, 1980

[H. Con. Res. 301]

Whereas a knowledge of other languages and cultures is necessary to keep American business competitive in world trade;

Whereas the continued effectiveness of American foreign policy depends upon diplomatic and intelligence-gathering efforts which are based upon a sound knowledge of the world;

Whereas in our democratic society it is essential for the general public to understand world events so that official policies will reflect the concerns and interests of the American people;

Whereas a knowledge of foreign languages and cultures can help to improve mutual understanding among different ethnic groups and cultures within American society;

Whereas the past decade saw an alarming decline in the study of foreign languages and international issues in the Nation's schools, colleges, and universities, despite the growing importance of these subjects to the welfare of our Nation and our people;

Whereas the Federal Government has not and should not seek to establish education curriculum, but on occasion has urged that certain national needs be dealt with at the State and local level; and

Whereas the President's Commission on Foreign Language and International Studies has recommended that greater emphasis needs to be placed on the study of these subjects: Now, therefore, be it
