Public Law 98–443
98th Congress

An Act

To amend the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 to terminate certain functions of the Civil Aeronautics Board, to transfer certain functions of the Board to the Secretary of Transportation, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SHORT TITLE

SECTION 1. This Act may be cited as the “Civil Aeronautics Board Sunset Act of 1984”.

AMENDMENT OF FEDERAL AVIATION ACT OF 1958

SEC. 2. Except as otherwise expressly provided, whenever in this Act an amendment or repeal is expressed in terms of an amendment to, or repeal of, a section or other provision, the reference shall be considered to be made to a section or other provision of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1301 et seq.).

TERMINATION AND TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS UNDER THE FEDERAL AVIATION ACT OF 1958

SEC. 3. (a) Section 1601(b)(1)(C) is amended by striking out “Justice” and inserting in lieu thereof “Transportation”.

(b) Section 1601(a)(3) is amended by inserting after “Act” the following: “(other than section 204)”.

(c) Section 1601(a) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

“(4) The following provisions of this Act (to the extent such provisions relate to interstate and overseas air transportation and the authority of the Board with respect to such provisions (to the same extent)) shall cease to be in effect on January 1, 1985:

(A) Sections 401 (l) and (m) and 405 (b), (c), and (d) of this Act (except insofar as such sections apply to the transportation of mail between two points both of which are within the State of Alaska).

(B) Section 403 of this Act.

(C) Section 404 of this Act (except insofar as such section requires air carriers to provide safe and adequate service).

(D) The following provisions of this Act and the authority of the Board with respect to such provisions shall cease to be in effect on January 1, 1985:

(A) Sections 407 (b) and (c) of this Act.

(B) Section 410 of this Act.

(C) Section 417 of this Act.

(D) Sections 1002 (d), (e), (g), (h), and (i) of this Act (except insofar as any of such sections relate to foreign air transportation).
“(6) Sections 412 (a) and (b) of this Act (to the extent such sections relate to interstate and overseas air transportation) and section 414 of this Act (to the extent such section relates to orders made under sections 412 (a) and (b) with respect to interstate and overseas air transportation) and the authority of the Secretary of Transportation under such sections (to the same extent) shall cease to be in effect on January 1, 1989.

“(7) Sections 408 and 409 of this Act and section 414 of this Act (relating to such sections 408 and 409) and the authority of the Secretary of Transportation under such sections (to the same extent) shall cease to be in effect on January 1, 1989.

“(8) Sections 401 (l) and (m) and 405 (b), (c), and (d) of this Act (to the extent such sections apply to the transportation of mail between two points both of which are within the State of Alaska) shall cease to be in effect on January 1, 1989.”

(d) Section 1601(b)(1)(D) is amended by inserting after “transportation” the following: “(other than for the carriage of mails between any two points both of which are within the State of Alaska)”.

(e) Section 1601(b)(1) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

“(E) All authority of the Board under this Act which is not terminated under subsection (a) of this section on or before January 1, 1985, and is not otherwise transferred under this subsection is transferred to the Department of Transportation.”.

(f) Section 1601(b) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

“(3) The authority of the Secretary of Transportation under this Act with respect to the determination of the rates for the carriage of mails between any two points both of which are within the State of Alaska is transferred to the Postal Service and such authority shall be exercised through negotiations or competitive bidding. The transfer of authority under this paragraph shall take effect on January 1, 1989.”.

TRANSFERS OF FUNCTIONS UNDER OTHER LAWS

Sec. 4. (a) There are hereby transferred to and vested in the Secretary of Transportation all functions, powers, and duties of the Civil Aeronautics Board under the following provisions of law:

(2) The International Aviation Facilities Act (49 U.S.C. 1151-1160).

(3) The Animal Welfare Act (7 U.S.C. 2131 et seq.).

(5) Sections 108(a)(4), 621(b)(5), 704(a)(5), and 814(b)(5) of the Consumer Credit Protection Act (15 U.S.C. 1607(a)(4), 1681s(b)(5), 1691c(a)(5), and 16921(b)(5)).

(8) Section 5402 of title 39, United States Code (to the extent such section relates to foreign air transportation and to air transportation between any two points both of which are within the State of Alaska).

(9) Sections 4746 and 9746 of title 10, United States Code.
(10) Section 3 of the Act entitled "An Act to encourage travel in the United States, and for other purposes" (16 U.S.C. 18b).

(b) The transfer of any authority under subsection (a) of this section shall take effect on January 1, 1985.

(c) The authority of the Secretary of Transportation under section 5402 of title 39, United States Code, with respect to air transportation between any two points both of which are within the State of Alaska shall cease to be in effect on January 1, 1989.

COLLECTION OF DATA

Sec. 5. (a) Section 329(b)(1) of title 49, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"(1) collect and disseminate information on civil aeronautics (other than that collected and disseminated by the National Transportation Safety Board under title VII of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1441 et seq.) including, at a minimum, information on (A) the origin and destination of passengers in interstate and overseas air transportation (as those terms are used in such Act), and (B) the number of passengers traveling by air between any two points in interstate and overseas air transportation; except that in no case shall the Secretary require an air carrier to provide information on the number of passengers or the amount of cargo on a specific flight if the flight and the flight number under which such flight operates are used solely for interstate or overseas air transportation and are not used for providing essential air transportation under section 419 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958;".

(b) The amendment made by this section shall take effect on January 1, 1985.

REPORTS

Sec. 6. (a) The Secretary of Transportation shall submit a report to the appropriate committees of Congress not later than July 1, 1987, listing (1) transactions submitted to the Secretary for approval under section 408 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, (2) interlocking relations submitted to the Secretary for approval under section 409 of such Act, and (3) the types of agreements filed with the Secretary of Transportation under section 412 of such Act, and, with respect to such transactions, interlocking relationships, and agreements, those that have been exempted from the operation of the antitrust laws under section 414 of such Act. The Secretary shall recommend whether the authority under such sections 408, 409, 412, and 414 should be retained or repealed with respect to interstate and overseas air transportation and with respect to foreign air transportation.

(b) The Secretary of Transportation and the Postmaster General shall each submit a report to the appropriate committees of Congress not later than July 1, 1987, describing how the Secretary and the Postmaster General have administered their respective authorities to establish rates for the air transportation of mail and setting forth the recommendations of the Secretary and the Postmaster General as to whether the authority to establish rates for the transportation of mail between points within the State of Alaska should continue to be carried out by the Secretary by regulatory ratemaking or by the Postal Service through negotiations or competitive bidding.

TRANSFER AND ALLOCATIONS OF APPROPRIATIONS AND PERSONNEL

Sec. 10. (a) The personnel (including members of the Senior Executive Service) employed in connection with, and the assets, liabilities, contracts, property, records, and unexpended balances of appropriations, authorizations, allocations, and other funds employed, held, used, arising from, available to or to be made available in connection with, any function transferred by section 1601(b) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 or section 4 of this Act, subject to section 1531 of title 31, United States Code, shall be transferred to the head of the agency to which such function is transferred for appropriate allocation. Personnel employed in connection with functions so transferred, or transferred in accordance with any other lawful authority, shall be transferred in accordance with any applicable laws and regulations relating to transfer of functions. Unexpended funds transferred pursuant to this subsection shall only be used for the purpose for which the funds were originally authorized and appropriated.

(b) In order to facilitate the transfers made by section 1601(b) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 and section 4 of this Act, the Director of the Office of Management and Budget is authorized and directed, in consultation with the Civil Aeronautics Board and the heads of the agencies to which functions are so transferred, to make such determinations as may be necessary with regard to the functions so transferred, and to make such additional incidental disposi­tions of personnel, assets, liabilities, contracts, property, records, and unexpended balances of appropriations, authorizations, allocations, and other funds held, used, arising from, available to, or to be made available in connection with, such functions, as may be necessary to resolve disputes between the Civil Aeronautics Board and the agencies to which functions are transferred by section 1601(b) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 and section 4 of this Act.

(c) The Chairman of the Civil Aeronautics Board and the Secretary of Transportation shall, beginning as soon as practicable after the date of enactment of this Act, jointly plan for the orderly transfer of functions and personnel pursuant to section 1601(b) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 and section 4 of this Act.

EFFECT ON PERSONNEL

Sec. 11. (a) Employees covered by the merit pay system under chapter 54 of title 5, United States Code, who are transferred under section 10 of this Act to another agency shall have their rate of basic pay adjusted in accordance with section 5402 of such title. With respect to the evaluation period during which such an employee is transferred, merit pay determinations for that employee shall be 5 USC 5402. based on the factors in section 5402(b)(2) of such title as appraised in performance appraisals administered by the Civil Aeronautics Board in accordance with chapter 43 of title 5, United States Code, in addition to those administered by the agency to which the employee is transferred.

(b) With the consent of the Civil Aeronautics Board, the head of each agency to which functions are transferred by section 1601(b) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 or section 4 of this Act is authorized to use the services of such officers, employees, and other personnel of the Board for such period of time as may reasonably be needed to facilitate the orderly transfer of such functions.

SAVINGS PROVISIONS

SEC. 12. (a) All orders, determinations, rules, regulations, permits, contracts, certificates, licenses, and privileges—

(1) which have been issued, made, granted, or allowed to become effective by the President, any agency or official thereof, or by a court of competent jurisdiction, in the performance of any function which is transferred by section 1601(b) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 or section 4 of this Act from the Civil Aeronautics Board to another agency, and shall continue in effect according to their terms until modified, terminated, superseded, set aside, or revoked in accordance with law by the head of the agency to which such function is transferred, or other authorized officials, a court of competent jurisdiction, or by operation of law.

(2) which are in effect on December 31, 1984,

(b) The transfers of functions made by section 1601(b) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 and section 4 of this Act shall not affect any proceedings or any application for any license, permit, certificate, or financial assistance pending at the time such transfers take effect before the Civil Aeronautics Board; but such proceedings and applications, to the extent that they relate to functions so transferred, shall be continued. Orders shall be issued in such proceedings, appeals shall be taken therefrom, and payments shall be made pursuant to such orders, as if such sections 1601(b) and 4 had not been enacted; and orders issued in any such proceedings shall continue in effect until modified, terminated, superseded, or revoked by a duly authorized official, by a court of competent jurisdiction, or by operation of law. Nothing in this subsection shall be deemed to prohibit the discontinuance or modification of any such proceeding under the same terms and conditions and to the same extent that such proceeding could have been discontinued or modified if such sections 1601(b) and 4 had not been enacted.

(c) Except as provided in subsection (e)—

(1) the transfer of any function under section 1601(b) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 or section 4 of this Act shall not affect any suit relating to such function which is commenced prior to the date the transfer takes effect, and

(2) in all such suits, proceedings shall be had, appeals taken, and judgments rendered in the same manner and effect as if section 1601(b) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 and section 4 of this Act had not been enacted.

(d) No suit, action, or other proceeding commenced by or against any officer in his official capacity as an officer of the Civil Aeronautics Board shall abate by reason of the transfer of any function under section 1601(b) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 or section 4 of this Act. No cause of action by or against the Civil Aeronautics Board, or by or against any officer thereof in his official capacity shall abate by reason of the transfer of any function under section 1601(b) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 or section 4 of this Act.

(e) If, before January 1, 1985, the Civil Aeronautics Board, or officer thereof in his official capacity, is a party to a suit relating to a function transferred by section 1601(b) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 or section 4 of this Act, then such suit shall be continued with the head of the Federal agency to which the function is transferred.

(f) With respect to any function transferred to another agency by section 1601(b) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 or by section 4 of this Act and exercised after the effective date of such transfer, reference in any Federal law (other than title XVI of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958) to the Civil Aeronautics Board or the Board (insofar as such term refers to the Civil Aeronautics Board), or to any officer or office of the Civil Aeronautics Board, shall be deemed to refer to that agency, or other official or component of the agency, in which such function vests.

(g) In the exercise of any function transferred under section 1601(b) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 or section 4 of this Act, the head of the agency to which such function is transferred shall have the same authority as that vested in the Civil Aeronautics Board with respect to such function, immediately preceding its transfer, and actions of the head of such agency in exercising such function shall have the same force and effect as when exercised by the Civil Aeronautics Board.

(h) In exercising any function transferred by section 1601(b) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 or section 4 of this Act, the head of the agency to which such function is transferred shall give full consideration to the need for operational continuity of the function transferred.

DEFINITIONS

SEC. 13. For purposes of this Act—

(1) the term “agency” has the same meaning such term has in section 551(1) of title 5, United States Code; and

(2) the term “function” means a function, power, or duty.

ACCESS FOR HANDICAPPED PERSONS

SEC. 14. Section 104 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: “In the furtherance of such right, the Board or the Secretary, as the case may be, shall consult with the Architectural and Transportation Barriers Compliance Board established under section 502 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, prior to issuing or amending any order, rule, regulation, or procedure that will have a significant impact on the accessibility of commercial airports or commercial air transportation for handicapped persons.”

STUDY OF TRANSPORTATION TO AND FROM WASHINGTON DULLES AIRPORT

SEC. 15. (a) The Secretary of Transportation shall study the feasibility of constructing a rail rapid transit line between the West Falls Church, Virginia, station of the Washington, District of Columbia metrorail system and Dulles International Airport in Virginia. The study shall include, but need not be limited to, a study of the feasibility of heavy rail, light rail, monorail, magnetic levitation systems, and any other appropriate transportation systems. The Secretary shall study the feasibility of each such system with and without intermediate stops.

(b) The Secretary shall complete the study required by subsection (a) and transmit the results thereof to Congress not later than one year after the date of enactment of this Act.

AIR SERVICE IN THE STATE OF ALASKA

SEC. 16. (a)(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, with respect to air transportation to each of the points in Alaska listed in paragraph (4), essential air transportation for purposes of section 419 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 shall neither be specified at a level of service nor operated with aircraft of lesser seating and cargo capacity than provided for in CAB Order 80-1-167 and its Appendices unless otherwise specified under an agreement between the Department of Transportation and the State of Alaska, after consultation with the community affected. This paragraph shall cease to be in effect on January 1, 1987.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the total amount of compensation which may be paid under section 419 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 with respect to the points in Alaska listed in paragraph (4) shall not exceed $3,572,778 for each of the fiscal years 1985 and 1986 and shall not exceed $893,195 for service provided during the period beginning October 1, 1986, and ending at the close of December 31, 1986.

(3) The Secretary of Transportation shall study the feasibility of providing essential air transportation to each of the points in Alaska listed in paragraph (4) with aircraft having a smaller capacity than that required by paragraph (1), the level of compensation which would be required under section 419 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 for such transportation, and the impact of using such aircraft on the air transportation system in Alaska. The Secretary shall complete such study and submit a report of the results of such study to Congress not later than January 1, 1986.
(4) The points in Alaska referred to in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) are Cordova, Yakutak, Gustavus, Petersburg, and Wrangell.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no part of the order of the Civil Aeronautics Board in CAB docket number 38961 (CAB Order 84–6–77) shall enter into effect until after December 31, 1984.
