Private Law 98-7
98th Congress

An Act
For the relief of Audun Endestad.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Audun Endestad shall be held and considered to have satisfied the residence and physical presence requirements of section 319(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

Approved February 2, 1984.

Private Law 98-8
98th Congress

An Act
To cancel certain indebtedness in connection with disaster relief activities.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, notwithstanding any provision of the Disaster Relief Act of 1974, the Junior Achievement of Jackson, Mississippi, the Jackson, Mississippi, Symphony Orchestra, and the Mississippi Museum of Art are relieved of any liability for the repayment of payments erroneously made to them by the United States for disaster relief activities following the major disaster which was declared in Mississippi in April 1979, and for the payment of interest assessed against them pursuant to this repayment. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, credit shall be given for the amount for which liability is relieved by this Act.

Approved February 17, 1984.

Private Law 98-9
98th Congress

An Act
For the relief of William D. Benoni.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a) notwithstanding any other provision of law, jurisdiction is hereby conferred on the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts to review and render judgment on the decision of Public Law Board 1464 with respect to the discharge of William D. Benoni of South Deerfield, Massachusetts, from his employment with the Boston and Maine Railroad Corporation. In conducting such review, the court shall consider any alleged fraud or corruption by a member of the Public Law Board that was committed prior to the convening of the Board, if such fraud or corruption relates to the dispute which was the subject of the Board’s decision.
