PER CURIAM:

Danita Mitchell appeals the district court's order accepting the recommendation of the magistrate judge and dismissing her civil rights complaint. On appeal, we confine our review to the issues raised in the Appellant's brief. See 4th Cir. R. 34(b). Because Mitchell's informal brief does not challenge the basis for the district court's disposition, Mitchell has forfeited appellate review of the court's order. Accordingly, we affirm the district court's judgment. We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
