PER CURIAM.

Howard Eugene Liner (Liner), currently incarcerated in federal prison, appeals the district court's<sup>1</sup> amended preliminary injunction freezing his assets. After careful review of the record and applicable law, see Heartland Acad. Cmty. Church v. Waddle, 335 F.3d 684, 689-90 (8th Cir. 2003) (standard of review for appeal from preliminary injunction), we conclude that the district court had statutory authority under 18 U.S.C. § 1345 to issue the injunction which is the subject of this appeal; that the court did not abuse its discretion in issuing the injunction, in light of the evidence offered by the government; and that the scope of the injunction was proper, given Liner's refusal to offer rebuttal evidence as to the source of the frozen assets, and the court's allowance of funds for Liner's living expenses. Liner's remaining arguments provide no basis for reversal.

Accordingly, we affirm. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
