Appeal from the United States
District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri.

[UNPUBLISHED]

Submitted: December 15, 2005

Filed: December 22, 2005

Before BYE, BOWMAN, and GRUENDER, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

John W. Tyler (“Tyler”), an African-American, claims that the Missouri Highways and Transportation Commission (“MHTC”) denied him promotions because of his race and retaliated against him after he filed a discrimination complaint. The district court¹ granted summary judgment in favor of MHTC.

¹The Honorable Audrey G. Fleissig, United States Magistrate Judge for the Eastern District of Missouri, to whom the case was referred for final disposition by

After a careful review of the record and the parties' briefs, we conclude that the district court correctly granted summary judgment in favor of MHTC and that an extended opinion would add nothing of substance to the well-reasoned opinion of the district court. Therefore, we summarily affirm. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.²

consent of the parties pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(c).

²We also grant Tyler's motion for leave to file a corrected brief and deny MHTC's motion to dismiss.
